2.1 PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

The primary purposes and objectives of the corporation will be to provide services to victims of domestic violence and their children, to victims of sexual assault and sexual exploitation, to victims of child abuse and to victims of elder abuse. Further purposes and objectives of the Corporation include support of those government and non-government agencies that are partners to the Family Justice Center, whether on-site or off-site and to promote public awareness of domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, child abuse and elder abuse as well as to provide advocate programs that promote prevention. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all remaining assets will be used for charitable purposes only by direction of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 3 DIRECTORS

3.1 NUMBER AND QUALIFICATIONS

The corporation will have a minimum of three directors but no more than five directors, and collectively they will be known as the Board of Directors. The number may be changed by amendment of this Bylaw, or by repeal of this Bylaw and adoption of a new Bylaw, as provided by these Bylaws.

The Board will consist of a representative of the District Attorney's Office who shall serve as the President of the Corporation, a representative from a non-government victim advocate agency and a member-at-large appointed by the President and the non-government victim advocate representative by agreement. Additional Board members will be appointed by the President and ratified by other Directors of the Board of Directors. Thereafter, the board will approve by majority vote each person's election to the board. Anyone committed to the purposes and objectives of the corporation is qualified to be a director. Directors will, to the extent practicable, reflect the economic, professional, and ethnic diversity of the communities being served.

3.2 POWERS

Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, the activities and affairs of the corporation will be conducted and all corporate powers will be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

3.3 DUTIES

It will be the duty of the directors to:

Perform any and all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, or by these Bylaws;
Supervise all officers, agents, and management employees of the corporation to ensure that their duties are performed properly;
Meet at such times and places as required by these Bylaws;
Serve on at least one board committee; and

3.4 TERMS OF OFFICE

Each director will hold office until the next annual meeting for election of the Board of Directors as specified by these Bylaws.

3.5 COMPENSATION

Directors will serve without compensation. Likewise, directors may not be compensated for rendering services to the corporation in any capacity other than director. They will, however, be allowed reasonable advancement or reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their regular duties as directors as specified in Section 3.3.

3.6 RESTRICTION REGARDING INTERESTED DIRECTORS

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, not more than 49% of persons serving on the board may be interested persons. For purposes of this Section, an "interested person" means either:

Any person currently being compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time officer or other employee, independent contractor, or otherwise;

or

Any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person;

or

Any person being served as a client of the corporation within the previous six (6) months.

3.7 PLACES OF MEETINGS

Meetings will be held at the Alameda County Family Justice Center, the principal office of the corporation unless otherwise provided by the board. In the absence of such provision, any meeting not held at the principal office of the corporation will be valid only if held on the written consent of all directors, given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation, or after all board members have been given written notice of the meeting as provided below for special meetings of the board.

3.8 REGULAR AND ANNUAL MEETINGS

Regular meetings of directors will be held every other month on the third Monday of the month, unless that day falls on a legal holiday, in which event the meeting will shall be rescheduled to an alternate Monday that will accommodate the schedules of a majority of the board. Meetings will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m.

A financial report will be presented to the board at each regularly scheduled meeting.

At the annual meeting of the directors held on or about January, directors and officers will be elected by the Board of Directors in accordance with this section. Cumulative voting by directors for the election of directors and officers will not be permitted. Each director will cast one vote, with voting being by ballot only. For the election of directors, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected will be elected.

3.9 SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, or by any two directors, and will be held at the place designated by the person or persons calling the meeting and, in the absence of such designation, at the principal office of the corporation.

3.10 NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the board will be held on four (4) days' notice by email, first-class mail or forty-eight (48) hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone. If sent by mail, the notice will be deemed to be delivered on its deposit in the mails. The notices will be addressed to each director at his or her address as shown on the books of the corporation. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is held no more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting. Notice will be given of any adjourned regular or special meeting to directors absent from the original meeting if the adjourned meeting is held more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting.

3.11 CONTENTS OF MEETINGS

Notice of meetings not dispensed with by these Bylaws will specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting. The meeting's purpose need not be specified in the notice.

3.12 WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CONSENT TO HOLD MEETINGS

The transactions of any meeting of the board, however called and noticed and wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call and notice, provided a quorum, as defined by these Bylaws, is present and provided that either before or after the meeting each director not present signs a waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals will be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

3.13 QUORUM FOR MEETINGS

A quorum will consist of forty percent (40%) of the directors in office at the time, but fewer than three (3) directors may not constitute a quorum.

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, in the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, or by law, no final decisions on issues raised or on business will be considered by the board at any meeting at which a quorum, as defined by these Bylaws, is not present. The only motion that the President will entertain at such a meeting is a motion to adjourn. However, a majority of the directors present at such a meeting may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the board. However, at the direction of the President, the Executive Committee, made up of the President and a minimum of two additional Directors, can conduct preliminary business and propose recommendations for consideration by the Board without the presence of a quorum.

When a meeting is adjourned for lack of a quorum, it will not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at the meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, except as provided in Section 3.10.

The directors present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting due to a withdrawal of directors from the meeting, provided that any action thereafter taken must be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for the meeting or such greater percentage as may be required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the corporation.

3.14 MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD ACTION

Every act or decision by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the board are required by provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, particularly those provisions relating to appointment of committees (Section 5212), approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a material financial interest (Section 5233), and indemnification of directors (Section 5238e)

3.15 CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the Board of Directors will be presided over by the President of the corporation or, in his or her absence, by the Vice President of the corporation or, in the absence of each of these persons, by a Chairperson chosen by a majority of the directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the corporation will act as secretary of all meetings of the board, provided that, in his or her absence, the presiding officer will appoint another person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

At each meeting of the board, the Treasurer of the corporation, or another person designated by him or her, will make a financial report to the board.

3.16 ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to the action. Electronic mail and facsimile documents may constitute written consent. The written consent or consents will be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board. Such action by written consent will have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law that relates to such action will state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the Bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to act in this manner, and the statement will be prima facie evidence of such authority.

3.17 VACANCIES

Vacancies on the Board of Directors will exist (1) on the death, resignation, or removal of any director, and (2) whenever the number of authorized directors is increased.

The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached any duty under Sections 5230 and following of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Directors may be removed for being absent at four (4) or more board meetings within a year.

Directors may be removed without cause by a majority of the directors in office.

Any director may resign effective on giving written notice to the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of the resignation. No director may resign if the corporation would be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs, except on notice to the Attorney General.

Vacancies on the board may be filled by approval of the board or, if the number of directors in office is less than a quorum, by (1) unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice complying with this Article of these Bylaws, or (3) a sole remaining director.

A person elected to fill a vacancy as provided by this Section will hold office until the next annual election of the Board of Directors or until his or her death, resignation, or removal from office.

3.18 NON-LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

The directors will not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation.

3.19 INDEMNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

To the extent that a person who is, or was, a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative proceeding brought to procure a judgment against him or her by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, an agent of the corporation, or has been successful in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in that proceeding, he or she will be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding.

If such a person either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment against him or her, then indemnification against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding will be provided by this corporation but only to the extent allowed by, and in accordance with the requirements of, Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

3.20 INSURANCE FOR CORPORATE AGENTS

The Board of Directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation (including a director, officer, employee, or other agent) against any liability, other than for violating provisions of law relating to self-dealing (Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law), asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE 4 OFFICERS

4.1 NUMBER OF OFFICERS

The officers of the corporation will be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a chief financial officer who will be designated the Treasurer. The Secretary and Chief Financial Officer offices can be held by the same individual.

4.2 QUALIFICATION, ELECTION, AND TERM OF OFFICE

Any person may serve as an officer of the corporation. Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors at any time. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or Secretary of the corporation. Any such resignation will take effect at the date of receipt of the notice or at any later date specified in the notice and, unless otherwise specified in the notice, the acceptance of the resignation will not be necessary to make it effective.

4.5 VACANCIES

Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of any officer or otherwise will be filled by the Board of Directors. In the event of a vacancy in any office other than that of President, the vacancy may be filled temporarily by appointment by the President until such time as the board fills the vacancy. Vacancies occurring in offices of officers appointed at the discretion of the board may or may not be filled as the board will determine.

Unless another person is specifically appointed as Chairperson of the Board of Directors, the President will preside at all meetings of the board. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, the President will, in the name of the corporation, execute such deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, checks, or other instruments as may from time to time be authorized by the Board of Directors.

4.7 DUTIES OF VICE PRESIDENT

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Article I Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the ALAMEDA COUNTY FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER, Inc., a tax-exempt organization's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family:

- a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,
- b. A compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or
- c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all materials facts, and after discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

- a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest policy

- a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V

Compensation

- a. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI

Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

- a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
- b. Has read and understands the policy,
- c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII

Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with the charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in a excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII

Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
